Annex III: EU Historic Appointments to Lists of Arbitrators (Updated 19 January 2020)

Since 2011, of the sixty-two (62) appointments that the EU made to its sub-lists of arbitrators, eight (8) have been female (12.9%).¹³ Of the forty-seven (47) appointments in the past 5 years, five (5) were female (10.6%). The EU has once, in the trade agreement with Korea (2014), nominated more women than men to its sub-list. In its trade agreement with Japan, the EU named equal numbers of men and women to its panel. In 66% of the EU sub-lists, the EU appointed only men.

The EU has appointed only four (4) women to its sub-lists since 2011, with two (2) women receiving all of the appointments after 2014:

- Laurence BOISSON DE CHAZOURNES (twice)¹⁴
- H el ene RUIZ FABRI (4 times)
- Urusula KRIEBAUM (once, 2014)
